

A Triple Cord Prayer Group is a way to link hands and hearts with praying women around the world.

Through small-group prayer, women are encouraged to pray often and anywhere life's activities take them. Whether you are a mom with an infant to care for at home, or a professional with a demanding and busy schedule, just three praying women can shake heaven and put a whole host of enemies to flight!

Aglow's Vision for Prayer

Aglow women around the world are women of prayer. We have learned that if we pray, God will heal our land (2 Chronicles 7:14). We urge each Aglow woman to commit to pray for her "land," that is, her family, neighbors, co-workers, community, and her nation. Through a commitment to prayer, Aglow women are building a spiritual house, a global house of prayer for all nations, in order to see God's blessing on the people of the earth and their destinies fulfilled.

For more information about Aglow in your area:

Contact: _____
 Phone: _____
 E-mail: _____

www.aglow.org

123 – 2nd Avenue South, Suite 100
 P.O. Box 1749
 Edmonds, WA 98020-1749 USA
 E-mail: aglow@aglow.org

Triple Cord Prayer Groups

"...a threefold cord is not quickly broken."

Ecclesiastes 4:12b

What is a Triple Cord Prayer Group?

Each group is a powerful unit within itself, as 3 link hands and hearts to go before the Lord in prayer.

Through a commitment to see God's people blessed and their destinies fulfilled, Aglow women are uniting around the world as a Global House of Prayer.

The effectiveness of a prayer movement depends on establishing many individual units that interconnect around common goals. A Triple Cord Prayer Group is one of these units. Together, these groups form a vast network of prayer that can change lives, families, communities and nations.

If one Christian can put a thousand to flight, and two can put ten thousand to flight (Deut 32:30), think what three can do! Ecclesiastes 4:12 tells us, "Though one may be overpowered by another, two can withstand him. And a threefold cord is not quickly broken."

How Does a Triple Cord Prayer Group Work?

Gathering in twos and threes to pray is a powerful, yet simple way for busy women to pray. By gathering in a small group on a regular basis, everyone can participate! Through Triple Cord Prayer Groups, two or three can pray at any time and place that is convenient and easily accessible. Those who might feel uncomfortable praying aloud in a large group may find it easier in a Triple Cord Prayer Group.

It's easier to gather 2-3 women than it is to assemble a larger group.

You Can Form a Triple Cord Prayer Group!

1. Share with two friends about Triple Cord and invite them to form a group with you.
2. Agree on a convenient location and a time to start and close your time.
3. Share prayer requests and praise reports. Keep discussion to a minimum.
4. Allow most of your time for praying. Guard against your meeting becoming a gossip time by keeping requests confidential.
5. Pray with a focus and stay on that focus until you feel ready to move on. Make sure each member has an opportunity to pray.
6. Give thanks to the Lord for each answer to your prayers.
7. If more than three women want to be in a Triple Cord Prayer Group, encourage them to start another group.

Pray for needs within Aglow, your community, state, or nation and each other's personal & family concerns.

AGLOW MISSION STATEMENT

➤ To help restore and mobilize women around the world.

➤ To promote gender reconciliation in the body of Christ as God designed.

➤ To amplify awareness of global concerns from a Biblical perspective.