

Our “No Strings Attached” promise to you to be available:

- To explore possibilities with you for the women in your congregation.
- To chat with you via e-mail or phone.
- To keep our conversations confidential.
- To serve, if asked, cooperatively, never competitively.

Church~Aglow is a ministry of Aglow International, a global network primarily of women, in nearly 170 nations. It began interdenominationally in 1967, and remains so today. For more information, Aglow.org.

Contact our local Aglow or Church~Aglow leader

Aglow International Worldwide Headquarters:

Within the United States
Linda Jones
Executive Director U.S. Field
425.275.0224
lindajones@aglow.org

Outside of the United States
Jervae Brooks
Executive Director International Field
425.275.0221
jervaebrooks@aglow.org

Learn more about Aglow International
Aglow.org
Facebook

AGLOW
INTERNATIONAL

aglow.org

PO Box 1749
123 - 2nd Avenue South, Suite 100
Edmonds, WA 98020, USA
Phone: 425.775.7282
Fax: 425.778.9615

“If you are seeking to know the mission of your church, it is to enable as many people as possible to know, love and serve God with all their hearts, souls, minds and strength.”

– George Barna
Turning Vision into Action

Church
AGLOW

A MINISTRY OF AGLOW INTERNATIONAL

One Pastor Had a Need; the Other Held a False Assumption

Until they met the women of Church~Aglow.

- I had a great burden for the younger women in our church. Church~Aglow came along and got a nurturing group started. I can go on with what the Lord has called me to do in the church, knowing they are being cared for and taught. (As stated while serving in his previous pastorate.)

– Pastor Lloyd Sewdin, Whitehall Presbyterian Church, Whitehall, PA

- I always associated Aglow with ladies drinking tea and reading Bible verses to one another. Once I was exposed to their ministry, I found that was untrue. ...through this Church~Aglow ministry we reach others seeking God and His Spirit.

– Michael Wilcox, Pastor, Tree of Life Assemblies of God Native American Fellowship, Western New York

Who Are We?

We call ourselves Church~Aglow because we are women who already serve in churches all over our nation. We are committed to keeping our churches strong with believers whose gifts and talents are needed in the world. As seasoned volunteers, we offer you what we have learned about women's ministry through the decades, no strings attached.

What can we offer to your church, ministry, or community?

Assistance with women's or youth ministry:

- Bible studies
- Prayer groups
- Leadership training
- Personal spiritual growth and development

Assistance with events:

- Retreats
- Enrichment and training seminars
- Community outreaches
- Prayer events
- Emergency preparedness activities

And more.

As the daughter of a denominational pastor,

I grew up in a home where pastors, including A.W. Tozer, were regular guests around the dinner table. I vividly remember their candid conversations as they came together to break bread, encourage each other, and share the burdens and blessings of ministry that only their brothers could fully understand. Our dinner table was their safe place.

As the leader of a global ministry, I assure you that Aglow is a safe place where we value churches and their leaders. Our advisors on every level are men in ministry, most of them pastors.

What we offer you through Church~Aglow, simply put, is ourselves. We stand where we have always stood, in unity with the whole Body of Christ.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Jane Hansen Hoyt".

Jane Hansen Hoyt
President/CEO
Aglow International