I invite you to join me, and over 3500 Aglow women and men from around the world for this strategic gathering of warriors and champions. We have been on a fabulous journey as a ministry. I believe that we are moving into a higher level of corporate identity together. As God continues to unfold our story, we must move with one voice, one sound, one look.

- Jane Hansen Hoyt, President/CEO, Aglow International

come expecting

When Aglow leaders gather, a powerful convergence of passion, energy and influence is released into the nations. Our communities are in need of hope. We are ready to embrace what God has put squarely in front of us and take it to our cities and circles of influence.
