

SATURDAY EVENING PROPHETIC WORD

GRAHAM COOKE

2014 U.S. National Conference

Carry His Presence

Albuquerque, New Mexico

So, put everything down because I am going to prophesy over you – and I want you to take this prophecy into your Lighthouses and into your homes, into your businesses and places of work. Wherever you do business with humanity, take this prophecy and read it, pray it out. This is who you are to become. We need to read it in our Regions. You know our Regions need to be collecting the serious prophetic words that God has given us and there should be a reading out of those promises when we gather together. So that when we gather together we stand on those promises and then we worship.

Here goes –

It is your time to arise, to cross over the Jordan of your circumstances and live in the place that I have provided. I will teach you how to occupy because one who is more than a conqueror is one who takes territory and holds that territory and occupies it until Jesus returns.

I am turning you from a people who are seeking territory to a people who can occupy territory. I took my people out of Egypt where they had no territory and I took them to the Promised Land and I gave them territory. I will teach you occupancy and you must believe that I AM is your footsteps to power. I AM is with you. I AM is for you.

Walking in the Spirit is about acknowledging that every place I take you belongs to you for the time you are present and I will teach you to occupy in the place where you live.

It is your time to arise, to cross over the Jordan of your circumstances and live in the place that I have provided.

It is time for us to stop binding things and then retreating and then letting those things come back. It is time to hold territory. Binding and loosing is not for meetings, it is for life. So often we have bound and loosed things, but we have never taken possession of the territory that we bound. You cannot do that in meetings – you have to do it in life.

I have marked out the places, says the Lord, where I will give you specific authority to overcome as you learn the secrets of Majesty. It is My intention that you will be soaked and saturated in your mindset, in your perception, in your language and in your stance. That you will be saturated with Majesty until Majesty is the only thing you think about when you come into contact with the enemy.

There is no power that can successfully oppose you as you live on the level where you inhabit the Presence of the Living God, until the Presence of the Lord Jesus lives in you fully. And when He does, you become the ruler and reigner with Him.

You partner with Him in Supremacy. As I was with Jesus, so, I will be with you as the power of My words reside within your heart and My favor will abound all around you.

It should sound too good to be true. That is when you know it is Me. I do not make false promises. I do not make substandard promises. All of My promises are attached to Majesty and Sovereignty.

And I will never leave you, nor will I fail you in any way. I will be with you always. Look for Me in your circumstances and you will find Me.

I have territory that belongs to you.

You must possess your possessions. You must become a people of promise. You must be a stakeholder in the Kingdom.

Be careful to follow in My wisdom. Receive My perception and think the same thoughts that I do regarding your favor and your blessing.

I am making you in My image – do not try to make Me in yours.

Do not turn away from your favor. Step into the place of fullness.

My will is to promote you. This is your time to regain My strength and power and to learn the way of courage.

I have marked out the places, says the Lord, where I will give you specific authority to overcome as you learn the secrets of Majesty.

Many things will come against you, but We will smile over you.

We say to you, in no way be daunted by the enemy. Look to Us, look into Our face and your own face will become radiant.

That is why, says the Lord, I have set aside several levels of worship for you to inherit and you are moving away from the old songs into the new songs that are songs of identity, songs of power, songs of favor, and songs of overcoming. I am giving you new songs to sing and new songs that will become part of you.

This new worship will not have been seen in the earth – ever! Not even at the dedication of the temple. This is the sound of the Bride singing. This is the sound of the Bride singing towards Heaven, longing for union with her Lover.

As you sing that song, you will hear the song of the Bridegroom and the Presence of God will come down and He will overshadow you and He will inhabit you and you will rise up to a place of elevation that He has set aside for you.

It is time for Church become glorious in the earth.

It is time for a glorious Bride, a beautiful Bride, a powerful Bride.

It is time for a world beating, supernatural power to rise up in the earth and take her place and rule and reign in the name of Jesus and displace the enemy in your locality.

You are a prototype and I am so pleased with you. I am so blessed by you.

The Lord says, you have earned the right to be trusted with high levels of power and provision.

I release you from the bonds of sacrifice of learning to be faithful. I release you from that because you have proved yourself. You have stood and stood and stood and walked and spoken and you have become powerful, but now I will teach you what power really is.

I release you from sacrifice.

I release you into abundance.

I release you into favor.

I release you into fullness.

It is time for a world beating, supernatural power to rise up in the earth and take her place and rule and reign in the name of Jesus and displace
the enemy in your locality.

Because I trust you, says the Lord. I trust you.

So I take away all limitations and I release you into the same place that Jesus occupied on earth. I release you and I will teach you to walk more fully in His footsteps - at the level that Jesus walked amongst the sons of men.

This is your time to arise; this is the time of your arising like a hot air balloon. I break all the things that would tether you to the earth and I call you to rise up, level after level after level.

All that you once were is gone and a whole new Aglow has taken its place.

This is your time to arise and it is why I want you living in Majesty because Majesty will provoke you to discover Me in all My fullness.

Father, we thank You. You are opening our eyes and what we see is overwhelming us. We should be overwhelmed because now we can be astonished. Now we can be amazed. Now we can be overcome by all that You are.

We just want You to know, Lord, we are ready for a grand adventure. We are like Bilbo, I think I am quite ready for an adventure. We are ready Lord.

This is your time to arise;
this is the time of your arising like a hot air balloon.

I break all the things that would tether you to the earth and I call you to rise up, level after level after level.

We are ready to unlearn the ways of the world and learn the ways of the Kingdom. We are saying yes to the unlearning and we are going to love the learning that You have put in front of us.

In all of our situations, we are going to love the learning that is present. We are growing into our true self. The old self is dead and just occasionally in worship we are going to dance on his grave. No possibility of resurrection for that one.

We are new men, new women and everything is open to us. Everything is becoming available to us and we are going to learn the art of walking in utmost favor, absolute favor and total abundance. We are going to walk this earth with our hearts and our minds bound to Heaven and everywhere we go, everywhere the sole of our foot treads, we are going to bring down Heaven in that place and displace hell in that place. And, we are going to do it in Jesus name and we are going to do it for His sake. Amen!
